

With so few media companies controlling all of the news, The U.S. is becoming more and more like a thrid world nation with one govenment issue news staion. Our anti-trust laws should prevent this lack of diversity in the media, which is leading to worse, ass well as more slated coverage, and little or no world news.